

KLOVE provides a much needed service. It is the one station I can tune to and not have to worry about whether the lyrics are ok for children to listen to. If KLOVE is replaced, there is no similar service to replace it. KLOVE also keeps me informed of events at non-profit organizations in my area on their community calendar. I know of no other station that does so.